Allow extra time for your departure from LAX

We are currently working on a multi-year project to improve United's LAX terminal. While construction is underway, and travel volumes are higher due to spring break season, we are advising customers to allow extra time for check-in and security processing. Check-in for all United- and United Express-operated flights, including Premier Access check-in, is located in Terminal 7. For more information, visit united.com/laxenhancements
